Located on the first floor, this exclusive residence has been designed for those seeking an intimate retreat infused with timeless charm. The suite is distinguished by its generous proportions and unique aesthetic character, defined by a palette of soft greens and natural tones inspired by the botanical gardens of Lake Como.

Featuring two spacious and light-filled bedrooms, the suite offers breathtaking views of the lake. The main bedroom is centred around a magnificent bed framed by a burnished metal four-poster canopy, adding a refined sense of elegance, while the sage-green walls and floors create an atmosphere of complete tranquillity.

The residence also features a charming private garden, offering an intimate outdoor space in which to relax and enjoy the peaceful surroundings.
